

usDRP DISPUTE PROVIDER AGREEMENT
(Approved by the U. S. Dept. of Commerce on February 21, 2002)

This Contract to provide dispute resolution services for .us domain space (“Contract”) sets forth the basic terms and conditions of the agreement between _____ (“Dispute Provider”) and NeuStar, Inc. (collectively with its affiliates, “NeuStar”), each of which is referred to as a “Party” and collectively the “Parties.” The full execution of this Contract creates a binding agreement between the Parties.

1. General Purpose

The U.S. Department of Commerce, National Institute of Standards and Technology (“NIST”) selected NeuStar to manage and administer the .us domain space, otherwise known as the country code top level domain of the Internet domain name system corresponding to the United States. NeuStar had previously agreed with representatives of the Dispute Provider that, if awarded this contract (Purchase Order No. SB 1335-02-W-0175) (the “Government Contract”), the Dispute Provider would adopt NeuStar’s .US Dispute Resolution Policy and Rules, as approved by the U.S. Department of Commerce (the “NeuStar Policy”) and provide certain dispute resolution services to domain name registrants in the .US top-level domain (“Dispute Resolution Services”). This agreement with Dispute Provider was part of NeuStar’s response to the Request for Quotations of NIST.

2. Term

The term of this contract shall run concurrently with the term of the Government Contract. In the event that either party hereto materially defaults in the performance of any of its duties or obligations hereunder and does not substantially cure such default within thirty (30) days after being given written notice specifying the default, or, with respect to those defaults which cannot reasonably be cured within thirty (30) days, if the defaulting party fails to proceed promptly after being given notice to commence curing the default and thereafter proceed to cure the same, then the party not in default may, by giving written notice thereof to the defaulting party, terminate this contract as of a date specified in such notice of termination.

3.3 Fees.

Except for the limitation set forth in Section 3.4 below, Dispute Provider may set, at its discretion, the fee structure for providing the Dispute Resolution Services in accordance with the NeuStar Policy. Dispute Provider acknowledges that NeuStar is not responsible, financially or otherwise, for the parties that avail themselves of the Dispute Resolution Services in accordance with the NeuStar Policy.

3.4 Restrictions

Dispute Provider shall set fee structures and time frames for its provision of the Dispute Resolution Services in accordance with the NeuStar Policy that are commercially reasonable and similar to those offered by other available dispute resolution services for similar disputes under the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers' Uniform Dispute Resolution Policy.

4. Confidentiality

Each Party shall use the same efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure of Confidential Information as it employs to avoid unauthorized disclosure of its own Confidential Information of a similar nature. Each Party shall take reasonable steps to ensure that its employees comply with this Article. In the event of any disclosure or loss of, or inability to account for, any Confidential Information of the disclosing Party, the receiving Party shall immediately, and at its own expense notify the disclosing Party in writing, and take such actions as may be necessary and cooperate in all reasonable respects with the disclosing Party to minimize the violation and any damage resulting there from.

4.3. obligated by law to make such disclosure. Any disclosure to such entity shall be under the terms and conditions of this Article. Notwithstanding this subsection 4.3, the Parties may disclose the terms and conditions of this MoU to the Department of Commerce.

4.4. Each Party's Confidential Information shall remain the property of that Party except as otherwise expressly provided in the Contract. The obligations contained herein with respect to Confidential Information shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract for a period of three (3) years or such longer period as required by regulation, law or court order.

5. Press Release

The Parties shall consult with each other and must agree on the timing, content, and form before issuing any press release or other public disclosure related to this Contract, unless law requires such disclosure.

9.2 Arbitration

Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this contract, or the breach thereof, which remains unresolved more than 60 days after initiation of a demand for mediation shall be settled by arbitration in the District of Columbia before a single arbitrator. The arbitration shall be conducted pursuant to the Dispute Provider's Commercial Arbitration Rules, but shall not be administered by the Dispute Provider. Any and all determinations normally made by the Dispute Provider under the Commercial Arbitration Rules shall instead be made by the appointed arbitrator. Judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

The Parties shall first attempt to identify a mutually acceptable arbitrator. However, if the Parties are unable to identify a mutually acceptable arbitrator within twenty (20) days after service of the demand for arbitration upon all of the Parties to the dispute, the either party may request that the arbitrator be appointed by the president of the Association of the Bar of the District of Columbia.

The arbitrator's fees shall be deposited equally by the parties, but may be awarded by the arbitrator as provided in the Commercial Arbitration rules. However, under no circumstances shall any Party to this agreement be responsible for the payment of any administrative fees to the Dispute Provider in connection with this arbitration agreement.
